

MANY DEATHS IN THE SOUTH

Fully Three Hundred and Fifty Killed by Tornadoes.

OVER A THOUSAND INJURED

While Several Thousand Other Persons Are Rendered Homeless—Belated Reports From Outlying Sections Increase Casualty List.

The totals of death, misery and ruin caused in four Southern states by Friday's torna-does have come to hand in approximately correct form. Briefly stated they are:
Killed, about 350; injured, painfully or seriously, 1,200; homeless, several thousand.
Towns reporting serious wreckage 46; habitations and business houses practically complete ruins in these towns, about 2,500.
The above figures do not include the wreckage on plantations and farms, scores of which were struck and damaged.

New Orleans, April 27.—The number of dead from the torna-does in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama may never be known accurately for the reason that about 300 of them were negroes and they were buried in many communities without careful records being made of their numbers. While some of the first reports giving apparently reliable death lists have since proved unreliable, nevertheless, remote places which were late in reaching their dead have served to hold the total death list uniformly around 350. The manner in which this death list has grown, in spite of continual subtrac-tions from early reports, has been a melancholy index of the interstate scope of the disaster.

By following the wreckage of towns the general direction of the tornadoes can be traced closely. Apparently the storm struck in three separate currents, each describing the arc of a circle and traveling toward the northeast.

The First Tornado.

The first of these struck through Northern Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee before daylight Friday morning. The second appeared further south, about 7 o'clock, in Louisiana and Mississippi. This apparently was the portion of the storm which swept through Alabama and Georgia on Friday night and Saturday morning. The third portion of the storm appeared during Friday afternoon, further south than either of its predecessors. This was the storm which demolished Amite, La., and Purvis, Miss., the towns in which the wreckage was worst.

Why the fatalities were so unqualified is apparent from a glance at the photographs which have arrived here from many portions of the tornado belt. They all tell the same story. Whole blocks of what were formerly little residences and cabins lie spread over the ground in separate boards. If a huge lumber pile had been scattered over these areas, the number of individual boards, unattached to anything else, could scarcely have been greater. Many of these planks show very few breaks where they were separated from the other constructions. Under this mass of wreckage many hundreds of persons were buried, not one in hundreds escaping without some injury. The houses which were thus scattered were mostly negro habitations. The homes of the whites held together better, and the photographs show many of them with half the top, or the upper half of the structure ripped off, but leaving below protections which must have saved scores from death.

Remarkable Experiences.

Along with the accounts of suffering have come many recitals of remarkable experiences of which the following is typical:

At Amite, La., when the tornado appeared there were seven persons at the dinner table of Mrs. Hamilton Warner's home, including three children. One of the diners, Claude Bennett, saw the whirling cloud in time to shout a warning, and rushed out of doors, but the others remained in the dining room. The wind in a second tore off two doors on opposite sides of the room and an astonishing procession of live and inanimate objects began to pass into the room through these doorways. First came a calf running before the wind. The animal jumped over the dining table and went out the opposite door. Afterward came a horse, which went through the exit taken by the calf. The three children sought refuge under the table and no one was injured.

Relief measures throughout the wrecked district are being instituted.
The ruined towns have been visited by thousands of spectators, many of whom went with a few dollars in their pockets to distribute among the needy.
Sheds made from the wreckage have become the homes of hundreds. Small parties of men on horseback have gone through country districts taking inventories of the assistance needed and rendering aid where it was most necessary. At least a dozen funds have been started in as many cities and towns.

Following is a list by states of the forty-six towns reporting more or less damage:

Louisiana—Lucerne, Kenmore, Lamourie, Richland, Amite, Esie, Pine, Angie, Franklinton, Sheridan, Avard, Eunice. Total, twelve.

Mississippi—Gilles Bend, Purvis, Churchill, Lorman, Tillman, Malton, Baxterville, Braxton, Sunflower, Wahalak, Wingate, Columbus, Walls, Fairchilds Creek, Quitmans Landing, McLaurin, McCallum, Winchester, Pine Ridge. Total, nineteen.

Georgia—Columbus, Chipley, La Grange, Harris, Griffin, McDonough, Locust Grove, Cedartown, Cave Springs. Total, nine.

Alabama—Albertville, High Mound, Horton, Leesburg, Settlement, Blountsville. Total, six.

DEATH LIST GROWS.

Eighteen More Names Recorded on the Roll of Fatalities.

Atlanta, Ga., April 27.—News from isolated points in Mississippi add fifteen more deaths to the list of victims of the storms, while three of the injured in the hospitals at Albert-ville, Ala., since have died, making the total death list 368, with probable reports which may run the number up to 400.

Belated reports from Alencon, Miss., say that fifteen persons were killed in that neighborhood and a number of others injured in the cyclonic disturbances. Much property destruction was also reported.

Mrs. J. C. Coleman, a five-year-old child of W. E. Bobbo, and Emmett Russell died in a hospital at Albert-ville as a result of injuries received in Friday's disturbance, making a total of eleven whites and two negroes dead at that place.

A second violent storm swept Fort Deposit, Ala. Several residences were blown down and a large negro school building was completely demolished.
Governor Comer has declared martial law for the town and a company of militia is now on duty.

DISASTROUS TORNADO.

Passes Through Sparsely Settled Section of Mississippi.

Mobile, Ala., April 27.—A special to the Register from Meridian, Miss., says that a disastrous tornado passed through a sparsely settled section of East Mississippi south of that city.
Meridian also was visited by a remarkable wind, rain and hailstorm, much damage being done to crops and shrubbery. Reports from Causeyville say the main tornado passed seven miles below that place in a sparsely settled district. Timber properties are reported devastated.

A report received here says that the timber section of Southern Mississippi and the adjacent Alabama territory has again been visited by a heavy storm and much damage has been done.

FIFTEEN PERSONS KILLED

Number of Others Injured in Perry County, Miss.

Hattiesburg, Miss., April 27.—News has reached here from the Alencon neighborhood in Perry county, which says that fifteen persons were killed in that vicinity in Friday's storm and a number of others injured. The known dead are W. K. Howell, his wife and seven children. Seven members of a family living ten miles southwest of Richton are also reported to have been killed.

The greatest force of the storm passed three miles south of Richton, where much property was destroyed.

Wire communication is still interrupted and information from the country districts is being received by courier or through the mails.

Tornado in Indiana.

Providence, Ind., April 27.—A tornado which swept three townships of Johnson county, demolished barns, damaged houses, destroyed telephone and telegraph service and wrought damage estimated at not less than $50,000. The storm swept in a northeasterly direction and did not appear to be over one-eighth of a mile wide.
Only one person is known to have been injured.

Death List in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., April 27.—Latest reports from the storm section of North Alabama show a total death list of 29, while the number of seriously injured will reach nearly 200. The storm passed through Blount county, visiting places far remote from railroads and telegraph, from which reliable reports have not yet been received.

Tents for the Homeless.

Baton Rouge, La., April 27.—Governor Blanchard has called upon the military authorities of the state to aid in the work of caring for the sufferers in the tornado which devastated portions of this state. Tents will be sent to Amite City, where there are many persons homeless.

Venom Is Extracted for Second Time in History of Medicine.

New York, April 27.—For the first time in eighty years and the second time in the history of the science of medicine, an operation for the extraction of venom from the deadly lance head viper, said to be the most poisonous of all known reptiles, was performed at the Bronx Zoological park.
The operation, which was directed by E. W. Runyon of this city, through whose efforts the snake was captured and brought to New York, was a complete success and as a result science once more has a plentiful supply of the serum, which has been found almost invaluable in the treatment of extreme cases of insanity and also of many malignant diseases. The extremely powerful nature of the lance head's venom can be no better described, probably, than by the declaration of one of scientists who witnessed the operation. When the perilous task had been completed and the precious fluid obtained had been carefully weighed and found to be less than a third of an ordinary teaspoonful in quantity, he announced that the supply was ample to meet the demands of the world for at least half
time that this would provide for the
all the malignant diseases, such as typhoid and scarlet fever and diphtheria. So powerful is the action that it is prescribed only in the most minute quantities, the largest portion commonly used containing only one ten-trillionth of a grain. From that point the trituration continues down to a point where figures would be use-

Costly Structure Over the Taunton

Fall River, Mass., April 27.—The
New Bristol county steel bridge, which is to connect this city and the town of Somerset across the Taunton river, was badly damaged by a mysterious explosion of dynamite. The bridge is being built for the county at a cost of $750,000. It is estimated that the loss to the contractors will

The police investigation showed that a charge of at least 50 pounds of dynamite was placed on the granite pier nearest the Fall River shore and
The explosion displaced the heavy steel girders and generally destroyed the framework of the bridge for fifty
top of the pier was cracked and split.

The entire north section of the city was shaken by the explosion and window glass in nearly every house was smashed. The contractors employ nonunion workmen. The same firm has suffered three previous attempts

Canadian Hamlet Devastated

Spring Rains Melted the Snow and Ice
on the Mountainside and Precipitat-
Village of Notre Dame de Salette.

Buckingham, Quebec, April 27.—Half the little French hamlet of Notre Dame de Salette, sixteen miles from here on the Lievre river, lies buried under a sliding mountain and at least thirty of its small population are known to have perished. The hamlet had but one telephone and no telegraph and neither is it on a railroad.
Meager bits of news of the disaster came in by messengers from the physicians and other rescuers who were
aid came.

The river Lievre winds at the foot of the hamlet and a mountain towers
have been melting the snow and ice on the mountainside and streams have been coursing down to the river. Just as the little hamlet began to stir for early mass, part of the mountain
started to slide toward the river. It left a path of death and destruction in its wake and those who were not killed when their homes were engulfed were left buried under the mass of rock and earth.

Camille La Pointe's house stood first in the path of the avalanche. He and his family of eleven are known to have perished. Eight others whose names have not been obtained are missing. Mrs. Desjardin's cottage also was swept away and she, with her
man, are known to be buried in the landslide.

De Salette, like many hamlets of its kind, rambles into gardens and little fields on the mountainside, so about half of it was not in the path of the avalanche. The sliding mass rushed with a roar and spread fan-like over part of the place and dumped itself

Into the Swollen Stream

world, messengers were dispatched to Pouepere, the nearest hamlet. Those who arrived first estimated that at least a dozen houses were crushed in the path of the landslide. Buckingham was appealed to. Those first on the scene found De Salette in a panic with the uninjured ones packing their

The first messengers to Buckingham ordered twenty-five coffins to be sent to De Salette and all the physicians of the town were hurried across country with rescue parties.

and are coming slowly.

the number of known dead thirty, of which eleven bodies have been recovered. In all twenty houses were engulfed in the slide.

De Salette was built on the two banks of the River Lievre. One house on the west bank, containing the only telephone in the hamlet, was the first obstacle in the path of the sliding mountain and in its wreck communication with the outside world was cut off. The slide carried two houses on the west bank into the swollen river
covered eighteen houses there. The river was dammed and those who
drowned. De Salette was built on a blue clay which rested on a strata of limestone.

Five years ago there was a similar disaster at Pouepere. Pouepere then slipped gently into the river without loss of life.

Landslides along the river are common each spring with the rains and swollen streams. The Lievre at De
Occupants of the houses on the west bank felt the ground slip and made a rush for safety, but were carried into the river.

WOMAN SHOT TO DEATH.

Home in Maryland.

Baltimore, April 27.—Mrs. Annie Griffith, aged thirty-five years, was shot to death by Frank McIntyre, who had been a boarder at the Griffith home at Brooklyn, a southern suburb of this city, for about a year. McIntyre had been entertaining some friends and all of them are said to have been drinking. Leaving the others, McIntyre went upstairs to Mrs.
Griffith's room, where she was in bed.
He had been gone about fifteen minutes when five shots were heard.
Every one of them had taken effect in the body and face of the woman, who died before a doctor could be summoned. McIntyre gave himself up.
Griffith was not at home when the shooting, for which no motive is assigned, took place.

rather than have bad health thru wearing a clumsy har-

that ever came to her despairing ambition for style with comfort. It's as simple as any other W. B. corset. It's the last word in scientific stay-building; simple, light in weight, durable and by no means expensive. It readjusts
the figure by supporting it properly and poises the body correctly, the back is straightened, the hips are pulled down, and the figure below the tapered off, giving a perfection of grace hitherto deemed unattainable by women of more than ordinary development.

Said to Have Reached Mexico From Guatemala.

City of Mexico, April 27.—There is a persistent rumor here that news of a most disquieting nature has been received by the Mexican state department from Guatemala. According to reports President Diaz has called a cabinet meeting to discuss Central American affairs.

It is impossible to confirm the stories. It is declared the United States and Mexico have reached an agreement regarding Central American affairs and that important developments are about to materialize.
It is reported here on good authority that six battalions of Mexican troops have been ordered to proceed at once to Tapachula, on the Mexican-Guatemalan frontier. Whether or not this movement of troops is connected in any way with the recent disturbances in Guatemala cannot be officially verfied.

Tries to Save His Friend.

Minneapolis, April 27.—Braving
death in an attempt to save the life of his playmate, Joseph Moore, eleven years old, jumped into the icy waters of Lake of the Isles from a sinking boat occupied by himself and Allan Potter, in the hope that the frail craft would be able to support his friend after it had been relieved of his own weight. His unselfish sacrifice proved in vain, however, for Allan Potter sank with the boat and was drowned before help arrived.

New Bristol county steel bridge,

Village of Notre Dame de Salette.

aid came.

landslide.

Pouperre, the nearest hamlet. Those

country with rescue parties.

and are coming slowly.

gulfed in the slide.

mountain and in its wreck communication with the outside world was cut

disaster at Pouperre. Pouperre then
loss of life.

the river.

Griffith, aged thirty-five years, was
have been drinking. Leaving the others, McIntyre went upstairs to Mrs.
Griffith's room, where she was in bed.
He had been gone about fifteen minutes when five shots were heard.
signed, took place.

Thru 'Michael's' Door For Coat and Suit Bargains

We've the bargains—big ones too. Every one offered is a 1908 spring style—every quality the select kind that characterizes our store and every price quoted here is—well, we might use big superlatives in describing the price reductions but let us say that they are much below regular selling prices. You will find it quite profitable to find out how much these price reductions really mean. See the garments.

$20.98 THIS IS A VERY SMALL
we have offered at that price. Those who bought of this lot Saturday were immensely pleased with their purchases. The splendid assortment is not broken, but doubtless soon will be. There are browns, blues and blacks—sizes 34, 36, 38 and 40—every one a late style—the cheapest in the lot was worth $23.75 and all the others higher priced. All go on sale at $20.98

$15.00 THIS PRICE IS OUR SALE price on one lot of fine tailored suits. There is not one in the lot but that would be reasonable at $20.00. The qualities are good—the colorings good and the styles most excellent.
If you are at all interested in suits see this line—better see it at once too as we expect a rapid selling.

$5.00 IN OUR BARGAIN BASEMENT will buy a splendidly tailored black, 1908 spring style coat worth $6.00 and $6.50. This is an unusual garment selected especially for the Basement. We also include some very pretty covert and fancy coats at prices just as reasonable.

Corsets for stout women

rather than have bad health thru wearing a clumsy harness that straps and buckles and squeezes her into torture

Guatemala.

velopments are about to materialize.

to Tapachula, on the Mexican-Guatemalan frontier. Whether or not this
ified.

boat occupied by himself and Allen

The Chinese Varnish Made to Walk Upon

MADE IN ALL COLORS
Cherry, Mahogany, Oak, Natural, Etc

For Floors, Bar Tops, Furniture and General Household Use.

Come to our store and get a sample of Chi-Namel applied to wood. Take it home and test it

blow with a hammer, and note that while the wood may be indented a quarter of an inch, the varnish has not marred or cracked. This proves that Chi-Namel is very elastic.

Second. Place the wood sample in a tea kettle, and note that boiling water does not turn it white. This proves that Chi-Namel contains no rosin.

Third. Apply whiskey. This proves that Chi-Namel will stand upon bar tops.

to stand open over night, and note that there is no evaporation. This proves that Chi-Namel contains no benzine.

Fifth. Spread varnish over flat surface, and brush in every direction, and note "self levelling" effect. This proves that all brush marks disappear, and the result will be pleasing no matter how inexperienced the applier may be.

wood.

Chi-Namel will make old furniture look BETTER than new furniture.

Take no substitute. We invite you to prove to yourself there is NOTHING "just as good as Chi-Namel."

WILL CHANGE FRONT

Security State Bank Will Change Front of Koop Building to Make Rooms More Convenient

Messrs. Storck and Guerin have decided to change the front of the room in the Koop building so as to make it more up-to-date and more convenient for their use. The door will be changed to the north side of the room so as to give an inside lobby, which is the most
arrangement is such that it gives the men working in the bank the benefit of having the light from the side and rear instead of in their faces, as is the case with the old style of arrangement. The contract for the work has been let to
C. B. Rowley, who will commence work on it in a very short time.

J. W. Koop is also receiving bids for the new front to be put into the south side of his building. When this is completed he will have a very pleasant store room.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law

We are pleased to announce that Fo-

National Pure Food and Drug Law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. H. P.

TO COMMENCE BALLASTING

Work on Completion of Roadbed of Big Falls & International Railroad to Begin at Once

The steam shovel outfit of the Minnesota & International railroad will go north tonight to complete the work of grading and ballasting the roadbed of the Big Falls & International Falls railroad, as the extension between the towns of Big Falls and International Falls is technically named. The road bed, when turned over to the Minnesota & International railroad last fall for operation, was in condition to permit the passage of trains, but it was not perfect by any means and it was known that it would be necessary to do much work on it this season. That work will commence at once.

and prevents Bright's disease and dia-

Two Killed by Lightning.
Huntington, W. Va., April 27.—
Robert Harrison and his six-year-old son Thomas were killed by lightning at their home in this county.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.
For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

James W. Turner, one of the highest salaried and most versatile colored per-
with the J. C. Rockwell New Sunny South company. As a colored organization it stands in the front rank, it has made a splendid reputation during the
composed of twenty-five people, each and every one an expert in speciality work, whose only object is to amuse the audience and this they do to perfection. The company is accompanied by its high-class solo concert band and superb orchestra. The band will head

The Power That Governs

With the memory of his highly successful visit to this city in "Monsieur Beaucaire" still lingering in the minds of local theatregoers, the approaching
latest success, "The Power That Governs," cannot arouse anything but expectations of the pleasantest kind. The
strong drama, dealing with characters possessed of what might be termed the
"positive" type. Its scenes are laid in Mexico, just across the border, but the people of its cast are, with few exceptions, New Yorkers. Friday, May 8th.

The Burgomaster

One of the leading Vancouver papers says of "The Burgomaster," which will appear in this city in the near future:
"The musical comedy, 'The Burgomaster,' seems to have lost none of its power to attract nor none of its power to please. The Vancouver Opera house held a large audience last night and the numerous recalls told the rest.
The title role was taken by Gus Weinberg, and both as the burgomaster of New Amsterdam and as the seeker after fun and enlightenment 200 years after he was a mine of mirth. He had good support from Leo Kendall as Doodle Vonkull, who joined the burgomaster in his long sleep and his later adventures. The star of the performance, however, was undoubtedly and unquestionably Miss Ruth White as Van Astorbilt, 'the midnight son.' Miss White was so charming a boy that it was easy to believe that the girls were in love with the gilded youth.
Her songs were all well sung, and repetition were demanded again and again for all her numbers. Marion Mack was amusing as the female theosophist, who was after her affinity. Fred W. Bailey made all that was possible out of the minor role of a stranded actor. George McKissock, as the Indian chief and later as one of the finest showed his versatility. The chorus is well trained and got their share of applause."

Rev. John Daniels, of Kansas City, Will Conduct Series of Meetings at Episcopal Church

Commencing on Wednesday evening of this week, the Rev. John Daniel, of Kansas City Missouri, will conduct a series of evangelistic services at the First Methodist Episcopal church. The services have been arranged by the pastor and congregation for the purpose of deepening the spiritual life and building up the church generally. Rev.
Daniels, the evangelist who will do the preaching, is a Southerner and a man
the special work which he has been invited to do in Brainerd. On Sunday evening he closed a series of meetings which he held at Little Falls which have been most helpful to the church both in increase in membership and a
town. The Rev. Charles Fox Davis extends a most hearty invitation to all to attend these meetings. On Wednesday evening the service will commence with a song service at 7:45. Men particularly are invited.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

Judge C. W. Stanton Will be Nonpar- tisan Candidate for Election to Office of District Judge

Judge C. W. Stanton, who was recently appointed to the district judgeship made vacant by the resignation of Judge Spooner, has announced his candidacy for election to the position. A dispatch from Bemidji to the Pioneer Press quotes him as follows:

"It seems to me to be a little early to make any announcement, but since you have inquired, I have no hesitancy in saying that I have concluded to act upon the suggestion made by many of my friends, both Republican and Democratic, and I shall endeavor to succeed myself by means of an independent candidacy, provided the required number of petitioners join in that request.
"I shall seek no party nomination.
I believe that the judiciary should be kept separate and apart from any party strife, and I shall, therefore, so long as I am on the bench, keep out of politics entirely and leave my candidacy in the hands of those who agree with me that the judiciary should be strictly nonpartisan."

Centenary of the Establishment of the New York Archdiocese.

One hundred years ago the Roman Catholic archdiocese of New York was established, and beginning April 26 the church will have a week's celebration of its anniversary.

Commenting on this event, Archbishop John M. Farley tells in the following words why the diocese celebrates:

"A generation ago we celebrated the centennial of the nation—of its birth into the family of nations. Her children recalled with pride and with a due sense of humble acknowledgment of the goodness of God the lowly beginnings of this now great, glorious and prosperous country. Its poverty, its struggles with false friends from within and from without and the prophecies of certain failure soon to follow the young and inexperienced nation.

"The young republic, with a wisdom born of its own big heartedness and warm sympathy, opened wide its arms to the oppressed and deserving of all the world. She took them to her heart, taught them in her own way how to respect the rights of each, molded them under the influence of her own institutions until these strangers from afar came to love her with an affection stronger than death and passed down to their children and their children's children that unflinching devotion.

"Such was her wondrous growth that when her first century had closed she stood among the foremost nations of the earth. For this she kept her centennial in thanksgiving and gratitude a generation ago.

of the Catholic church in this diocese of New York, and for this grace and divine power we feel called on to lift up our voices and our hearts in gratitude to God at the close of this century in her organized life."

The revised programme of the celebration reads:

Sunday, April 26—Solemn mass of Thanksgiving in all the churches of the diocese, with special sermon and a general holy communion of the entire faithful. The rubrics will not permit a votive mass on Low Sunday, but the Oratio Pro-gratulari Actione, found in the missal after the Missa de Trinitate, should be added to the prayers of the day.

Monday—Children's mass in all the churches of the diocese.

Tuesday, 11 a. m.—Pontifical mass, St.
Patrick's cathedral; celebrant, his eminence Cardinal Gibbons, America's only representative in the college of cardinals; 8 p. m., pontifical vespers, St. Patrick's cathedral; celebrant, his excellency the apostolic delegate, Most Rev. Diomedo Falconio; preacher, John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis.

Wednesday, 11 a. m.—Pontifical mass,
St. Patrick's cathedral, for school children of the diocese; no adults admitted; 8 p. m., mass meeting of laity at Carnegie hall.

Thursday, 10 a. m.—Pontifical requiem deceased prelates and priests of the diocese in St. Patrick's cathedral; 8 p. m., reception of visiting prelates at the Catholic club.

Friday, 10 a. m.—Pontifical votive mass of the Sacred Heart at St. Patrick's cathedral.

Saturday—Street parade of Catholic laity.

The coming celebration will witness the greatest gathering of prelates in the religious history of the continent.
At the pontifical mass in St. Patrick's cathedral on the morning of April 28 there will be two cardinals, ten archbishops, fifty bishops and the abbots and provincials of all the religious orders. A feature of this service will be the attendance of many of the Canadian Catholic bishops in response to invitations from Archbishop Farley.

A century ago, when Rome gave the diocese its first bishop, the church membership was 16,000. Today it is 1,300,000. A hundred years ago there were only two Catholic churches in the diocese. Today there are 310. There were only two priests then, while today the roster of active clerics assigned to regular service within the diocese shows a total of 855 names.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Star-News says that Senator Buckman, of Sauk Rapids, has at last definitely decided to enter the race for congress.

Geo. W. Holland has been appointed as a member of the democratic committee from the fifteenth district.

The Howe saw mill has started up for the season.

Otto Reinhart, commonly known as "Sliver" has gone to Oshkosh, Wis., to live.

East Brainerd is the scene of much building operations. A half dozen elegant residences are being put up.

It is quite probable that the county commissioners will decide to purchase the Henry Spalding farm in Oak Lawn for a poor farm. The price asked is $4,000. It is thought that by having an institution of this kind the expense of keeping the county paupers will be reduced. Commissioner Farrar informs us that something like $2,000 was expended last year for their support.

In an accident at Motley Tuesday A.
C. Farrar and his fireman were bruised up quite badly. The train left the track and the engine was completely overturned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Nevers will spend the summer in the east visiting points of interest and among the other places they will visit will be Mr. Nevers' old home in New Brunswick.

E. W. Kaley, who has been spending the winter in California, returned from that sunny climate on Sunday.

The Little Falls Water Power company will celebrate the completion of their extensive waterworks system May 10th.

and will be dealt with according to the statutes provided.

How Bishop Fallows Would Unes- tranged Wives and Husbands.

Bishop Samuel Fallows of the Reformed Episcopal church, who founded Christian psychology, has taken another plunge into the occult, says a Chicago dispatch. He announces a remedy to unite estranged husbands and wives and kill off the divorce evils.
It is to be done by suggestion and auto-suggestion. He told all about it in an address on the psychology of doubt.

The bishop declared he had used the
when a man or woman desires to win back his or her mate the mind must be kept in a receptive condition. The bishop continues:

"One cannot believe unless he puts himself in the position to believe; one cannot love unless one puts himself in the position to love; one cannot continue to love unless one wills to continue to love. Of course we cannot will to love and then love or will to believe and then believe.

"What the will can do is to create by auto-suggestion a will in this sub-consciousness to continue in love or to believe. This I make use of in my efforts to reunite people who have entered into the holy bonds of matrimony and who think that they have ceased to love each other.

"The first thing to do when one of these persons comes to me thinking that he or she has ceased to love is to set the will in operation to bring to the subconsciousness a consciousness of the past. It is idle to say, 'You must love one another.' No amount of will can bring that about, but the will can summon recollection.

"I say to the troubled one if a woman: 'Go back over your whole life.
Go back and reflect on the time that you were being wooed and won. Did you take a great magnifying glass then to look for faults? Were you happier then now? They say that love is blind, but this is to be taken in a limited sense as blind to faults. Nothing in the whole world is more keen sighted to see good qualities. You are blind to the good in taking a magnifying glass to the faults. Go back into the past and think of the way you sacrificed and toiled to make the home. Recall the good times you have had together.'"

"In this way is created by auto-sug-
which may prove more powerful than the false belief that they cannot love.
This same method can bring about marriage."

Bishop Fallows concluded with these
epigrams:

"Love once and you must love always. Love cannot be killed once it is instilled. There is no earthly power that can make two people fall in love with each other. If two people really love each other once, that love can always be revived. Deep in their hearts they will always love one another. Di-
hearted battles."

EGG EATER'S CHALLENGE.

Offers to Consume Forty-two Eggs at a Sitting or Forfeit $50.

Louis Gill, champion egg eater of Montgomery, Mo., says he can beat the record of Frank Ryan of Whiteside, Mo., who is reported as having eaten as many as thirty-five eggs at one sitting.

To prove his assertion Gill has offered to put up $50 that he can consume forty-two eggs in a contest for the championship and $50.

Gill's highest record is thirty-six eggs, but he is inspired by the contest that is now on to greater things.
Therefore he challenges the world that he can swallow forty-two Missouri eggs and digest them or forfeit $50.

Gill formerly conducted a restaurant at Iowa, Kan., where he began his career as an egg eater; also a possum consumer. He and his partner, J. E.
O'Donnell, got a fine possum and cooked it in a delicious style. O'Donnell was called away from the restaurant on business. During his absence Gill forgot he had a partner in the feast and consumed the possum.

Gill does not aspire to become the champion possum eater, leaving that to the Ethiopian race, but he does bet that he has a capacity to digest eggs by the dozen. He likes them soft boll-ed, with a little coffee, having been known to drink as many as six cups at one sitting.

is very elastic.

Chi-Namel contains no resin.

Third. Apply whtkey. This proves that Chi-Namel will stand upon bar tops.
that Chi-Namel contains no benzene.

face, and brush in every direction, and
inexperienced the applicer may be.

wood.

C. B. Rowley, who will commence
work on it in a very short time.

J. W. Koop is also receiving bids for

Robert Harrison and his six-year-old
at their home in this county.

local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment,
tarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore
ledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops

Wrestling Films

The films of the Gotch-Hackenschmidt see them.

salaried and most versatile colored per-

the "Koon" town parade at 4 P. M.
Prices are 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

laid in Mexico, just across the border,

ture:

Rev. John Daniels, of Kansas City, Will Conduct Series of Meetings at Episcopal Church

Commencing on Wednesday evening
building up the church generally. Rev.
extends a most hearty invitation to all
ticularly are invited.

Judge C. W. Stanton Will be Nonpar-

Office of District Judge

Press quotes him as follows:

ocratic, and I shall endeavor to succeed
of petitioners join in that request.
"I shall seek no party nomination.
as I am on the bench, keep out of politics entirely and leave my candidacy in

Centenary of the Establishment of the New York Archdiocese.

established, and beginning April 26 the
of its anniversary.

bishop John M. Farley tells in the fol-
brates:

in and from without and the prophe-
the young and inexperienced nation.

a generation ago.

bration reads:

diocese, with special sermon and a general benediction of the entire faithful. The rubrics will not permit a votive
mass on Low Sunday, but the Oratio Progratularum Actione, found in the missal

Patrick's cathedral; celebrant, his eminence Cardinal Logue; preacher, his eminence Cardinal Gibbons, America's only

cathedral; celebrant, his excellency the apostolic delegate, Most Rev. Domènec Falconio; preacher, John J. Glennon,

St. Patrick's cathedral, for school children of the diocese; no adults admitted;

olic club.

thedral.

the greatest gathering of prelates in the religious history of the continent. At the pontifical mass in St. Patrick's cathedral on the morning of April 28
there will be two cardinals, ten arch-
invitations from Archbishop Farley.

membership was 16,000. Today it is
were only two priests then, while to-
shows a total of 855 names.

How Bishop Fallows Would Unite Estranged Wives and Husbands.

Christian psychology, has taken another plunge into the occult, says a Chi-
wives and kill off the divorce evils.

bishop continues:

forts to reunite people who have en-

summon recollection.

then now? They say that love is blind,
sense as blind to faults. Nothing I

gestion the will to continue in love,

epigrams:

Nature on the Job.
Nature's very busy now—
Not much time for play.
Getting ready for the plow And the planting day.
Has to clear away the frost
From the earth so numb;
Not a moment to be lost Ere the Maytime come.

Calls the sun up earlier, Puts him hard at work.
Every sunbeam is astir—Not a chance to shirk;
Keeps him working later, too,
In the twilight hours,
For there's such a lot to do For the coming flowers.

Has to fold up all the wraps Winter's left around;
Cage the vagrant, chilly snaps That would freeze the ground;
Has to wake up all the trees.
Start the leaves along;
Get up breakfast for the bees—Pretty hungry throng!

Make things ready for the birds,
Who have started north,
And the grass for grazing herds Must be sprouting forth.
Nature's quite the busiest Worker far and near—Must have ready all her best When the May is here!

RESULT OF COLLISION

Twenty-eight Men Are Either Dead or Missing.

EIGHT OTHERS MAY BE LOST

Exact Number of Persons Who Perished When American Line Steamer St. Paul Sank British Cruiser Gladiator Is Unknown.

London, April 27.—The total number of dead and missing of the Gladiator's crew as a result of the collision between the American liner St. Paul and the British cruiser off the Isle of Wight is twenty-eight. The admiralty has issued a revised list of the names of the Gladiator victims, which includes an additional death in the hospital, bringing the total of deaths known up to five. Twenty-three men are missing according to the list, and six are suffering severe injuries. The secretary of the admiralty expresses fear that there are still eight others missing, but is unable to give the names as yet.

The opinion among shipping men and naval officers and officials appears to be unanimous that the accident was unavoidable. There will be the usual naval court and an inquiry by the board of trade.

All witnesses of the disaster agree practically that both crews behaved as well as possible.

Coming so soon after the loss of the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger, which was sunk by the cruiser Borwick off the Isle of Wight on April 3, last, thirty-six men being drowned, the sinking of the Gladiator is a severe blow to the British navy.

The St. Paul had a narrow escape from the same fate as the Gladiator. The St. Paul was more seriously damaged than at first supposed. She shipped a great quantity of water through her broken plates and from the moment she backed away from the wrecked cruiser until she reached her wharf all her pumps were kept going to their full capacity.

The snow was falling so thick that it was impossible to see a yard ahead.

Drowned—Bodies recovered, Cowdrey, first writer; Widgery and Sieberes, stewards.

Injured—One seaman, since died in Golden Hill hospital; seven injured in hospital.

Missing—Lieutenant William G. P. Graves, five petty officers and fifteen seamen and stokers.

The mayor of Portsmouth has issued an appeal to the nation for a relief fund for the sufferers of the Gladiator and the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger, which was recently destroyed.

Rages for Thirty Hours and Causes Enormous Damage.

London, April 27.—A remarkable blizzard, the worst experienced in the south of England since 1881, raged practically all over the United Kingdom for thirty hours. It was accompanied by a violent northerly gale and a low temperature, and in many places the snowdrifts are eight feet deep. Railroad traffic has been seriously delayed and telegraph and telephone systems are completely disorganized. Tramway cars and motor cars have been snowed up in every section of the country.

Many of the outlying districts are isolated and some deaths from exposure are reported. Enormous damage has been done, especially to the young fruit crops.

London, where much snow has fallen during the past week, was bathed in sunshine, but it is still very cold.

Sanitation of Caracas.

Caracas, April 27.—President Castro has asked the academy of medicine to formulate measures for the sanitation of Caracas, to combat the bubonic plague, if it should break out. Following this request the academy has issued orders for the immediate destruction of rats, the daily washing of the streets and buildings, and the destruction of existing foci of infection of whatever kind.

"Oldest Inhabitants" Dead.

Washington, April 27.—John Edward Libbey, president, and Charles B. Church, vice president, respectively, of the Oldest Inhabitants Association of the District of Columbia, died here. Mr. Libbey was born in this city, Nov. 22, 1837, and Mr. Church at Jefferson, Frederick county, Maryland, Sept. 11, 1826. Both men had long been identified with the lumber business.

Quarrel Ends in Death.

Chicago, April 27.—Paywell Grzesewski, thirty-five years old, was stabbed and instantly killed by Antonio Fiak in a bakery in South Chicago, where the men were employed. Fiak was arrested. The men quarrelled over a trivial matter.

AUTO FOR POLAR TRAVEL.

Dr. Charcot, the Antarctic Explorer, Has Invented a Motor Sledge.

Dr. Jean Charcot of Paris, the famous antarctic explorer, who is soon leaving for another protracted voyage of exploration to the antarctic continent, is now carrying on a series of experiments with an auto sledge of his invention which might have been used to advantage by the contestants in the New York to Paris race. The doctor purposes to use this sledge in traversing the snow covered plains of the extreme south after he has been forced to leave his ship. The experiments show that the sledge is of extreme utility in travel over deep snow, whether it is hard or soft. He has been able to climb fairly steep hills with it and to travel across country where no roads whatever exist.

The sledge is of great simplicity. Weighing less than 500 pounds, it is composed of three distinct parts. The chassis is built like an ordinary Norwegian sledge, light and strong. The motor and running parts are placed in the rear of the sledge and are completely protected from the snow. A three horsepower motor is used, with two speed changes, the first designed to give four kilometers an hour and the second eight.

The most interesting part of the machine is the propeller. This is composed of a wheel having two parallel rims, connected by crosspieces about one foot apart. Each of these rims is supplied with spoon shaped creepers of steel, which are equally effective in attacking either ice or snow. The propeller is suspended in such a manner that it can follow exactly the contour of the surface over which it is passing.

So successful were the experiments as a whole that Dr. Charcot says he intends to take at least three of the auto sledges with him, perhaps more. He believes that such sledges will in the future to a great extent replace dogs in the quest for the north pole also. As for the south pole, surrounded as it is by vast ice fields, almost perfectly level, he believes that his invention has at last rendered that goal attainable.

MEMORIAL TO SHAKESPEARE.

Statue to Be Erected in London—All Countries Asked to Contribute.

A world's tribute to the genius of Shakespeare in the form of a monument to be erected in Park Crescent, London, has been decided on by the executive committee in charge, which has resolved to unveil a fitting memorial to the great poet and dramatist in 1916, which will be the three hundredth anniversary of his death.

The members of the committee express the hope that all countries will join with England and America in making the movement for the memorial a complete success, and they have voted to open the competition for the design to the sculptors of all English speaking races. It is proposed that the memorial shall be an architectural monument, including a statue, and that each design shall be submitted by an architect and a sculptor in collaboration.

It is proposed to raise the sum of $1,000,000 for the project, and the contributions of all who desire to pay a tribute to the Bard of Avon will be welcomed. The London city government has already asked to be allowed to contribute, and many other offers from foreign communities have already been received.

The site selected for the memorial faces Portland place and was obtained when King Edward consented to the removal of a statue of the Duke of Kent, which now stands there, to another location.

The committee which will make a selection from the designs submitted is composed of Viscount Esher, Lord Plymouth, Sir Edward Poynter, P. R. A.; Sir Ashton Webb, R. A.; Sidney Colvin and an American artist to be nominated by the American ambassador, Whitelaw Reid.

Plan of Farmers to Save Their Land and Crops.

"There is only one part of the Missouri river that resembles the Nile, in Egypt; but, unlike that river, its overflow is not welcomed by the farmers," said L. G. Hackney of Wellington, Mo., the other day. "For many years farmers in my county have attempted to raise crops in the Missouri river bottoms, and in some cases they have succeeded in getting crops raised and harvested, but many more times they have raised good crops only to see them washed away."

"Many plans were considered and discussed for overcoming the flow of water, and finally it was decided to assess those directly interested and with the fund raised to build a high wall that would hold back the water."

"The money was collected and the contract let, and now work has been begun on the construction of the wall. It will be about a mile in length and fifty feet high. It is to be about fifty feet wide at the base and about twenty feet across at the top. There is perhaps no other such wall along this river, and farmers are confident that it will prove a good investment. The land to be thus protected is very rich and productive."

The St. Paul had a narrow escape from the same fate as the Gladiator. The St. Paul was more seriously damaged than at first supposed. She shipped a great quantity of water through her broken plates and from the moment she backed away from the wrecked cruiser until she reached her wharf all her pumps were kept going to their full capacity.

Portsmouth, April 27.—The admiral commanding the Portsmouth station has issued a list of the victims of the collision between the cruiser Gladiator and the American liner St. Paul off the Isle of Wight, as follows:

Drowned—Bodies recovered, Cowdrey, first writer; Widgery and Sieberres, stewards.

The mayor of Portsmouth has issued an appeal to the nation for a relief fund for the sufferers of the Gladiator and the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger, which was recently destroyed.

London, April 27.—A remarkable blizzard, the worst experienced in the south of England since 1881, raged practically all over the United Kingdom for thirty hours. It was accompanied by a violent northerly gale and a low temperature, and in many places the snowdrifts are eight feet deep. Railroad traffic has been seriously delayed and telegraph and telephone systems are completely disorganized. Tramway cars and motor cars have been snowed up in every section of the country.

Many of the outlying districts are isolated and some deaths from exposure are reported. Enormous damage has been done, especially to the young fruit crops.

Sanitation of Caracas.

Caracas, April 27.—President Castro has asked the academy of medicine to formulate measures for the sanitation of Caracas, to combat the bubonic plague, if it should break out. Following this request the academy has issued orders for the immediate destruction of rats, the daily washing of the streets and buildings, and the destruction of existing foci of infection of whatever kind.

"Oldest Inhabitants" Dead.

Washington, April 27.—John Edward Libbey, president, and Charles B. Church, vice president, respectively, of the Oldest Inhabitants Association of the District of Columbia, died here. Mr. Libbey was born in this city, Nov. 22, 1837, and Mr. Church at Jefferson, Frederick county, Maryland, Sept. 11, 1826. Both men had long been identified with the lumber business.

Quarrel Ends in Death.

Chicago, April 27.—Paywell Grzeswelski, thirty-five years old, was stabbed and instantly killed by Antonio Fiak in a bakery in South Chicago, where the men were employed. Fiak was arrested. The men quarrelled over a trivial matter.

Dr. Charcot, the Antarctic Explorer, Has Invented a Motor Sledge.

Dr. Jean Charcot of Paris, the famous antarctic explorer, who is soon leaving for another protracted voyage of exploration to the antarctic continent, is now carrying on a series of experiments with an auto sledge of his invention which might have been used to advantage by the contestants in the New York to Paris race. The doctor purposes to use this sledge in traversing the snow covered plains of the extreme south after he has been forced to leave his ship. The experiments show that the sledge is of extreme utility in travel over deep snow, whether it is hard or soft. He has been able to climb fairly steep hills with it and to travel across country where no roads whatever exist.

The sledge is of great simplicity. Weighing less than 500 pounds, it is composed of three distinct parts. The chassis is built like an ordinary Norwegian sledge, light and strong. The motor and running parts are placed in the rear of the sledge and are completely protected from the snow. A three horsepower motor is used, with two speed changes, the first designed to give four kilometers an hour and the second eight.

The most interesting part of the machine is the propeller. This is composed of a wheel having two parallel rims, connected by crosspieces about one foot apart. Each of these rims is supplied with spoon shaped creepers of steel, which are equally effective in attacking either ice or snow. The propeller is suspended in such a manner that it can follow exactly the contour of the surface over which it is passing.

So successful were the experiments as a whole that Dr. Charcot says he intends to take at least three of the auto sledges with him, perhaps more. He believes that such sledges will in the future to a great extent replace dogs in the quest for the north pole also. As for the south pole, surrounded as it is by vast ice fields, almost perfectly level, he believes that his invention has at last rendered that goal attainable.

A world's tribute to the genius of Shakespeare in the form of a monument to be erected in Park Crescent, London, has been decided on by the executive committee in charge, which has resolved to unveil a fitting memorial to the great poet and dramatist in 1916, which will be the three hundredth anniversary of his death.

The members of the committee express the hope that all countries will join with England and America in making the movement for the memorial a complete success, and they have voted to open the competition for the design to the sculptors of all English speaking races. It is proposed that the memorial shall be an architectural monument, including a statue, and that each design shall be submitted by an architect and a sculptor in collaboration.

It is proposed to raise the sum of $1,000,000 for the project, and the contributions of all who desire to pay a tribute to the Bard of Avon will be welcomed. The London city government has already asked to be allowed to contribute, and many other offers from foreign communities have already been received.

The site selected for the memorial faces Portland place and was obtained when King Edward consented to the removal of a statue of the Duke of Kent, which now stands there, to another location.

The committee which will make a selection from the designs submitted is composed of Viscount Esher, Lord Plymouth, Sir Edward Poynter, P. R. A.; Sir Ashton Webb, R. A.; Sidney Colvin and an American artist to be nominated by the American ambassador, Whitelaw Reid.

"There is only one part of the Missouri river that resembles the Nile, in Egypt; but, unlike that river, its overflow is not welcomed by the farmers," said L. G. Hackney of Wellington, Mo., the other day. "For many years farmers in my county have attempted to raise crops in the Missouri river bottoms, and in some cases they have succeeded in getting crops raised and harvested, but many more times they have raised good crops only to see them washed away."

"The money was collected and the contract let, and now work has been begun on the construction of the wall. It will be about a mile in length and fifty feet high. It is to be about fifty feet wide at the base and about twenty feet across at the top. There is perhaps no other such wall along this river, and farmers are confident that it will prove a good investment. The land to be thus protected is very rich and productive."

Marsh Land Reclamation.

Many important drainage projects are under way in the marsh land of Louisiana, which will ultimately make it a great agricultural country.
